

DinnerAndSong

midweek music, food, and rejuvenation

A 90-minute, weekday oasis of great food,
an intimate concert,
and new friends and fans.

The DinnerAndSong host gathers 6-10 friends to join a professional touring artist for a real casual dinner and a memorable unplugged concert. Guests donate $10 each for the artist and they enjoy the opportunity to purchase CDs after the performance. It starts promptly, ends promptly – all tucked neatly between the artist's daytime travel and their normal evening of booking or songwriting, or just a great book.

Dinner = 35 minutes
Stretch = 5 minutes
Concert = 35 minutes
Wrap up = 15 minutes

Think of the benefits.....

for artists

on a weeknight, you find:

- a free place to stay
- free food
- a few friendly faces
- a short, easy show
- $50-125 in donations and CDs
- a potential house concert in the future for hosts

- a great reason to have friends over
- easy way to build an audience for future shows
- simple program that takes minimal time
- strengthen local friendships
- fun way to stretch your musical experiences and for performers who host!

- DNS won't tie up your valuable weekends
- introduce the concept to your friends (who might host you afterwards)
- allow you to build relationships with other artists

Host a few DNS shows to inspire your friends and to create opportunities in your area.
